

CoC Process for Reallocating
New Orleans/Jefferson Parish CoC LA-503

The project evaluation and selection committee will consider partial or full reallocation of projects when determining project rankings for the CoC application. Consideration will be made based on whether the project has failed to fully expend project funds in the most recent two project years, whether steps have been taken in the current year, and whether a project has consistently ranked at the bottom of the CoC project rankings.