

AWARD-WINNING NONPROFIT

UNITY of Greater New Orleans, which leads community campaigns to end homelessness, is hiring: 1) Housing Specialist to assist homeless people with mental & physical disabilities to remain stable in housing. Work w/clients to calculate rents, complete annual re-certifications, & housing inspections. Required: Demonstrated commitment to social justice, experience providing housing services to low-income people or people w/disabilities, excellent detail in paperwork, basic math skills. 2) SSI Specialist to assist homeless people with mental and physical disabilities to qualify for Supplemental Security Income (SSI). Work w/clients to obtain documentation of disabling conditions & drive clients to appts. Required: Demonstrated commitment to social justice, experience working with people with mental or physical disabilities, excellent writing & analytical skills. Apply by noon Sept. 16 by sending resume, with cover letter explaining which job you are applying for, interest & qualifications, to admin@unitygno.org. See www.unitygno.org.